WORTH WHILE BOOK FREE

Our new 1965 catalogue is worth any one's while. It is just out and is free for the asking.

Just as soon as we know that you want one and where you are, you will get a copy. As a specimen of printing it will delight the eye of the lover of the artistic.

As the epitome of Omaha's wonderful commercial importance, it will please the Omaha enthusiast.

As a review of the fields of labor open to and opportunities beckoning to the young man or woman who will become a finished Stenographer. Bookkeeper or Telegrapher it will even surprise most business men and prove a perfect eye opener to the young men and young women who have not investigated what wonderful opportunities the world of business holds out to them.

As an advertisement of the superior advantages possessed by and those which are possessed by Boyles graduates, it is a convincing essay that will make an impression upon every reasonable mind.

The parent who is desirous of giving his son a fair start in life—or giving his daughter an education that will make her independent of this world's vicissitudes, ought to read this book.

The young man who is about to leave school—who has not yet decided what line of work he will adopt as a life work—who is now working in a position not suited to his abilities—who feels that he is in a rut in business, will find this catalogue of vital interest to him. The young woman who is about to leave school—who wants to take up some congenial line of employment—who wants to break away from the usual long, hard and thankless toil connected with woman's work, will find this book a source of great inspiration.

SEND FOR IT TODAY

Don't forget that Boyles Building now makes Boyles College the ideal summer school.

Fine cool class rooms and gymnasium add to the comfort of the scholar and to his or her zest in study. Remember that it is this Fall that business assistants will be in he greatest demand.

Every day now it are enfollment day.
